4. It Stops Here Campaign Evaluation Results – INFORMATION

John Knox White, Transportation Planner at SFMTA and Megan Wier of DPH, will present preliminary results from the It Stops Here Campaign. Launched in summer 2014, the campaign included citywide media (bus ads and billboards), high visibility enforcement on four of the city's high-injury corridors, and individualized outreach (on-street outreach provided by the Chinatown Community Development Center, the South of Market Community Action Network, the Mission Economic Development Agency, and the San Francisco Conversation Corps). Individuals were also asked to take a safe streets pledge at www.safestreetssf.org. This campaign was funded by a federal Transportation Enhancements grant programmed by the Transportation Authority Board and involved collaboration of several city agencies including SFMTA, DPH, and the San Francisco Police Department.

5. Update on Opportunities to Advance Vision Zero with State Agencies – INFORMATION

Megan Wier of DPH and Kate Breen, Director of Government Affairs at SFMTA, will discuss outcomes from the April 2015 site visit and workshop with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration and California Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) toward advancing better, faster, and more-cost effective implementation of Vision Zero initiatives. They will also present an update on the California City Transportation Directors' inaugural meeting in Sacramento in July 2015, which brought together directors and staff from San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland, Sacramento, Fresno, San Diego, and San Jose to discuss issues and opportunities for coordination around project delivery and Vision Zero with California State Transportation Agency Lead Staff. Finally, Transportation Authority staff will present an overview on our collaboration with the California

Department of Transportation and SFMTA to identify and address high-injury freeway ramp intersections for consideration to incorporate into the Vision Zero network.

6. Update on Use of Parking Control Officers to Support Vision Zero – INFORMATION

The Vision Zero Strategy indicates that SFMTA will identify Parking Control Officer (PCO) duties that support Vision Zero goals and complete a PCO program resource optimization process to formalize means by which PCOs can be assigned Vision Zero supporting duties.
